Mr. Liotta is a lawyer at Axiom Legal, a full-service International law firm, specializing in the technology, telecommunications and outsourcing sectors.

He assists businesses in corporate and commercial projects involving complex technology issues and advises clients on ICT-related matters including data protection and data retention compliance, e-commerce and export control.

Prior to joining Axiom, he worked with another American firm and with British Telecom developing his expertise in the IT and Telecoms industry.

He regularly publishes articles on the regulatory framework applicable to ICT businesses, focusing on data protection issues and ISPs' and telecommunications operators' liability arising from online content distribution.
